LEON HESS

Chairman of the Board

At the conclusion of the 1992 season, Leon Hess assured Dick Steinberg and Bruce Coslet that the Jets would be active in the NFL's new free agency and he proved to be a man of his word. The Jets were one of the NFL's most active teams signing six unrestricted free agents, highlighted by former Pro Bowl players Ronnie Lott, Leonard Marshall and Eric Thomas. The Jets also orchestrated two trades and landed another pair of Pro Bowlers in Boomer Esiason and Johnny Johnson. The Jets are optimistic that the eight offseason acquisitions, and what appears to be a strong draft, will put the team back on the right course.

At the end of the 1989 season Hess made a bold decision to change the direction of the club. He began a search for the best "football" man to run the club and in December 1989, he named Dick Steinberg to the post of vice-president and general manager. A month and a half later, Steinberg named former Cincinnati offensive coordinator Bruce Coslet as head coach.

In 1991 the Jets made the playoffs for the first time since 1986. Although the 1992 season was a disappointment, this past offseason is breeding a new optimism among all Jets fans.

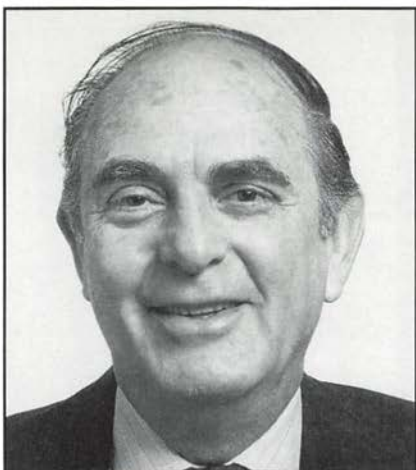

Hess has continuously sought the finest football facilities for both the players and fans throughout the years.

After citing Shea Stadium as "the NFL's poorest facility for athletes and spectators alike," Hess announced plans to move to the Meadowlands prior to the 1984 season. As a result, during the last nine seasons, thousands of additional Jets' fans have had the opportunity to watch NFL football in comfort and safety, in modern, clean surroundings, with proper facilities, adequate parking and good football sightlines.

In addition, Hess has continued to provide the Jets' players and staff with outstanding facilities by building an ultra-modern locker room at the Meadowlands and by improving the Weeb Ewbank training complex at Hofstra University with a new AstroTurf field, a new locker room and weight room and additional offices.

In 1983, Hess was an honored recipient of the Distinguished American Award at the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Dinner. He joined an impressive list of past winners including Vince Lombardi, Bob Hope, Jimmy Stewart, Bill Carpenter and Fr. Theodore Hesburgh.

Hess, the Chairman of the Board of the Amerada Hess Corporation, has been the sole owner of the Jets since 1984 and has been actively involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963.

STEVE GUTMAN

President

It was a busy offseason for Jets' President Steve Gutman. Not only was he instrumental in the Jets' aggressive pursuit of veteran players, signing six unrestricted free agents and trading for two Pro Bowlers, but he also played a vital role in negotiating the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement as a member of the NFLMC's Work Group.

During his term as president, the Jets organization has seen several changes in recent years that have brought marked improvement and a measure of respect among the ranks of professional sports. He and Leon Hess led the search which resulted in the hiring of Dick Steinberg as GM in 1989. That move and Steinberg's subsequent hiring of Bruce Coslet steered the team in the right direction as the Jets made the playoffs in 1991, their first postseason appearance since 1986.

"The changes in football management that took place have been very positive and constructive," said Gutman. "I think Dick Steinberg and Bruce Coslet and his staff and the scouting department have done a terrific job. We have maintained a corps of veterans to build upon, yet we replaced half the team. Our objective has been to get the atmosphere for the 1990s established and I think we have been successful. We are confident that sometime in the 1990s we are going to have a team that everyone who follows us is happy about, most of all our fans."

Gutman, who works closely with Hess, was named president on June 14, 1988. He has been with the Jets since 1977. His first 11 seasons were spent serving as the corporate treasurer-secretary and administrative manager. In that role he supervised the daily operation of the club and served on the Board of Directors. He also directed all of the Jets' fiscal operations including player contract negotiations, tickets and marketing. Gutman has added the responsibilities of the presidency while still directing all of the fiscal and daily operations of the club.

Gutman has been a respected figure around NFL circles. In 1991, he was appointed by Paul Tagliabue to the Management Council Work Group. He served as an economic consultant to the NFLMC during the 1982 collective bargaining sessions with the NFLPA. He is also a member of the players pension plan committee.

Prior to joining the Jets in 1977, Gutman had extensive experience as a financial consultant in areas of securities, research, sales, underwriting, investment banking and management.

Gutman received his BS in accounting and MBA in corporate finance from New York University. He was born January 24, 1935 in the Bronx, New York. He and his wife, Carol, have three children, sons Fred and Rob and daughter Elise.

DICK STEINBERG

General Manager

The ink was hardly dry on the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, allowing unrestricted free agency to veteran NFL players, when Dick Steinberg made his first moves to improve a young Jets team.

In a matter of just 10 days, Steinberg signed free agents Ronnie Lott and Leonard Marshall and traded for QB Boomer Esiason in an effort to bring some needed veteran leadership and postseason experience to the Jets roster.

"We have the commitment and the resources to improve through whatever avenues are available," said Steinberg. "Mr. Hess very badly wants the team to do well."

Steinberg catapulted the Jets offseason improvement plans into high gear by signing four more unrestricted free agents, and acquiring Pro Bowl RB Johnny Johnson in a draft day trade with Phoenix.

"The rules of the game have changed," said Steinberg. "You can no longer rely on just the draft to build your team. The advent of free agency has changed all that."

With an infusion of veteran leadership to complement an already talented young nucleus, Steinberg feels that the Jets are heading in the right direction under the tutelage of head coach Bruce Coslet and his staff.

"I think Bruce and the entire coaching staff came in here and established an entirely new environment that is very positive. The program has the players wanting to work hard and believing in what we're trying to do."

The rebuilding process began in 1990 with a team that had 23 players with one or fewer years of NFL experience. That team finished with a 6-10 record while having the lead at halftime in 11 games and after three quarters in seven games.

They learned from that experience and in 1991 they finished in second place in the AFC East at 8-8 and made their first appearance in the playoffs in five years.

"With Dick running the show, they've become an aggressive team," said 49er vice-president John McVay.

The Jets named Steinberg as vice-president and general manager of the club on December 18, 1989 giving the former New England Patriots director of player development full control of the Jets' football operations.

"Dick Steinberg was named vice-president and general manager of the Jets following extensive interviews with myself and president Steve Gutman which have led to our finding the best 'football' man to take full charge of our team's operations," said New York Jets owner Leon Hess. "Steinberg's authority and command of the football operations will be with full power to bring about those changes which are necessary to rebuild the team."

"Dick has been given full authority to run the football operation," said Jets president Steve Gutman. "Given the opportunity to get a Dick Steinberg, someone of that caliber and reputation, we had to do it."

Steinberg came to New York not only highly regarded by the Jets, but also well respected by others in the NFL.

"I just think he's one of the better people we have in this business," said Giants' general manager George Young. "Does he have the background, knowledge, instincts, guts, work ethic? Has he been with winning teams and does he have ideas that give him a chance to win? It's 'yes' to all those things. Nobody is a sure thing, but I'll take my chances with a guy like him. Dick knows what it takes to win."

"Dick is a hard worker with a terrific eye for talent," said Chargers' general manager Bobby Beathard. "I think he has a good feel about the whole picture—coaching and the strengths and weaknesses of a team. He's not a guy who thinks he's some hot number. He's kind of laid back and easy to get along with."

Steinberg, who has selected the talent for two Super Bowl teams—the Patriots of Super Bowl XX in 1986 and the Rams of Super Bowl XIV in 1980—is considered one of the most knowledgeable minds in the NFL and a top talent hunter. He came to the Jets after nine years with the New England Patriots as director of player development. At New England Steinberg acquired Pro Bowlers Andre Tippett, Brian Holloway, Tony Collins, Irving Fryar and Fred Marion and traded for Sean Farrell to solidify its offensive line.

Steinberg originally left the Patriots as a scout (1972-76) to become director of college scouting for the Rams in June, 1976. He remained in that post until being promoted to the position of director of player personnel, a job he held until June, 1980. In his first draft with the Rams in 1977 his first four picks were Bob Brudzinski, Nolan Cromwell, Wendell Tyler and Vince Ferragamo, all key figures in their Super Bowl season.

After his four-year stay with the Rams, Steinberg joined then general manager Steve Rosenbloom as vice-president of player personnel with New Orleans. Steinberg later resigned that post on January 20, 1981 before rejoining the Patriots.

Regarding his philosophy on the draft Steinberg said, "If you get away from taking the best player on the board you're making a mistake. If you've got five good receivers, and you take another one, don't worry. That's been proven so many times. It comes back to haunt you. We don't mind stockpiling talent at all because the injury factor is so prevalent."

A native of Philadelphia, born August 9, 1935, Steinberg played football and majored in physical education and health at Temple University. In addition to serving a two-year tour of duty with the U.S. Army in France, Steinberg was a high school coach at Philadelphia's Roman Catholic High (1960-61) and at Staunton (VA) Military Academy (1961-64). He then entered the collegiate coaching ranks as an assistant at Vanderbilt (1964-66) and Kansas State (1967-69).

Following a brief stint as a scout with the Dallas Cowboys in 1969, Steinberg spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Southern Mississippi (1970-71) before joining the Patriots as a personnel scout under then-director of player personnel Bucko Kilroy. Steinberg served with the Patriots from 1972-76 before departing for the Rams.

BRUCE COSLET

Head Coach

"We're looking forward to the 1993 season. We're excited about the players we acquired this offseason through free agency, trades and the draft," said Bruce Coslet who will start his fourth season at the helm.

"The best thing you can say about the 1992 season is that it is over," said Coslet. "It was the most difficult year I've been associated with in my 23 seasons with the NFL as a player and coach.

"One of the things we did learn last year was what courage and perseverance can do for a team. We went through all that, and we're going to build on that. Our team never quit. Throughout this adversity, we showed what courage was all about."

1992 was a tough season for Coslet and the Jets. High hopes crashed as the team finished with a 4-12 record and was decimated by injuries that caused 22 players to miss 109 games, including starters Jeff Lageman, Dennis Byrd, Al Toon, Blair Thomas, Irv Eatman and Lonnie Young.

Despite the losses and injuries, including the Byrd tragedy, Coslet's squad never lost its focus and played hard to the very end, posting upset victories over the AFC Champion Bills in Buffalo and the AFC East Champion Miami Dolphins.

With the season barely over, Coslet rolled up his sleeves and began preparing for the 1993 season. After evaluating the NFL's top players, Coslet, GM Dick Steinberg and the coaching and scouting staffs set out to improve their young team. They signed six unrestricted free agents, including Pro Bowlers Ronnie Lott, Leonard Marshall and Eric Thomas and traded for two offensive stars in Pro Bowlers Boomer Esiason and Johnny Johnson.

"These players bring a lot of talent or we wouldn't have signed them," said Coslet. "They also bring a lot of leadership which we need. We have a lot of young players on the team and we need some veteran savvy."

Change has been evident since the beginning of Coslet's regime as only 11 players remain from the pre-Coslet era.

In 1991, the team improved to 8-8 while finishing second in the AFC East and captured a Wild Card spot in the last game of the regular season with a dramatic overtime win at Miami. It was the Jets' first postseason appearance since 1986.

During that playoff season the team improved in almost every category. On offense, the Jets ranked 4th in the AFC and 5th in the NFL in rushing and led the AFC in time of possession. The offense also finished 4th in the AFC in total offense.

In 1990, his first season as head coach, Coslet engineered the Jets rebuilding process. The team finished 6-10 with a squad that had 23 players with one or fewer years of NFL experience. Coslet was named the NFL's Rookie Coach of the Year by Football Digest.

"I think Bruce came in here and established an entirely new environment that is very positive," said Jets general manager Dick Steinberg. "The program has the players wanting to work hard and believing in what we're trying to do."

The Jets named Coslet as the eighth full-time head coach in club history on February 6, 1990. Following extensive interviews, Steinberg decided on the former Cincinnati offensive coordinator as the man to lead the Jets into the '90s.

"We looked for a strong motivator, a teacher and a disciplinarian, a guy who can get the most out of his players every time out, and we felt Bruce was that guy," said Steinberg. "We were looking for someone who could create a winning environment. In addition we got a man with one of the most innovative minds in the business."

"Having coached Bruce as a player and seen him grow as a coach, I know him as well as you can know someone," said Stanford head coach and former 49er head coach Bill Walsh. "He is extremely bright and his intellect is not common in athletics. Bruce is creative and has a solid knowledge of offensive football. He has proven to be at the cutting edge of the game."

Coslet has also earned the respect and admiration of his players through the years.

"Bruce has a great rapport with the players and his football knowledge is unsurpassed by any coach," said QB Boomer Esiason, who has now been reunited with Coslet. "He knows more about how to dissect a defense than anyone I've seen. He wasn't only my teacher, but my eyes."

"I'm a creation of all the people I've played with and worked for," said Coslet. That is quite a list, and Coslet has taken a little something from all of them including Walsh, Paul Brown, Sam Wyche, Forrest Gregg, Lindy Infante and Buddy Ryan.

The 46-year old Coslet had been with the Cincinnati Bengals as a coach since 1981, the last four years as offensive coordinator. During his stretch as coordinator from 1986-89, the Bengals had one of the most explosive offensive schemes in the NFL. They had the NFL's number one offense twice (1986 and 1988), the NFL's top ranked rushing attack twice (1988 and 1989), and led the AFC in total offense three times (1986, 1988 and 1989).

In 1988, Coslet was a key factor in the Bengals' trip to the Super Bowl, when their offense led the NFL (378.6 per game).

Coslet joined the Bengals' staff in 1981 as the TE and special teams coach and became the first former Bengal player to join the staff. In 1983 he was given the added responsibility for the passing game and then tutored the WRs in 1984-85 before taking over as the coordinator.

Originally signed as a free agent, Coslet played TE and special teams for the Bengals from 1969-76 and was coached by Walsh for seven of those eight seasons. He was special teams captain during six of his seasons while playing as a backup TE behind Bob Trumpy. Coslet's career receiving totals were 64-877-9 TD in the NFL. In 1968 he played TE in the CFL for the Edmonton Eskimos.

After retiring in 1976, Coslet went back home to Stockton, CA, where he opened and ran a successful construction business with over 250 employees from 1977-79, in addition to investing in a chain of delicatessens in the area. However, a visit to the 49er training camp in the summer of 1979 made him realize how much he missed football, and when he received a call from Walsh to assist the 49ers during training camp he jumped at the offer. Coslet stayed on as an assistant coach for the entire 1980 season before going to the Bengals in 1981.

He played TE at Pacific from 1965-67 under head coach Doug Scovil and defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan, and earned his BA in history and psychology.

Coslet was born August 5, 1946 in Oakdale, CA where he was a football standout at Joint High. He and his wife Kathy have two children, son J.J. 18 and daughter Amy 16.

Richie is a lot like our other backs in that he's a big, slashing type guy with 4.4 speed who gets the ball in the end zone. He is also an excellent receiver.
—Jets GM Dick Steinberg

It's hard for me to compare Richard Anderson with anybody. So I don't compare him. I think he has the right to be Richard Anderson and to be judged by what he does. I think Richard Anderson is an outstanding tailback.
— Penn State head coach Joe Paterno

When he's out on the field, you just hold your breath. If he finds a crack, he can be in the end zone in seconds. If someone gets in his way, he just shakes them off. There's no stopping him.

Baxter is a two-dimensional TE. He's a big guy who is a very physical blocker and has the speed and hands to be a threat as a receiver. He is an excellent athlete and at one time was considered a top baseball prospect. He should make a strong run at the 3rd TE spot. He could be a move guy or a line of scrimmage guy.

—Jets GM Dick Steinberg

We have a premier player in Fred Baxter.

— former Auburn head coach Pat Dye

Whatever it takes, I'm willing to do it. I'm not a selfish player. It's nice to receive the ball, but I don't mind blocking. It feels good to block for somebody who scores a TD.

Craig has an extremely strong leg. He's been a 2-way kicker at Notre Dame and has had to punt under extreme pressure in very important games. He's the type of guy who can hit the boomer and turn the field around. We feel he has a strong shot at our starting punter job. We'll probably give him a look as a place kicker, particularly in the kickoff and long FG areas. — Jets GM Dick Steinberg

There won't be any better punter in the NFL than Craig Hentrich. I think the guy is a phenomenal punter.

Marvin has a chance to be a great, great football player. He can play anywhere, in any scheme as a linebacker, inside, outside or in the middle in a 4-3. He can be a special player.

—Jets GM Dick Steinberg

We feel like we got the best defensive player in the draft. We think Marvin is an impact player. He's all over the football field. He's got the size, the speed, the temperament and he's smart. He had a wonderful career and he's been a starter since the 3rd game of his freshman year. He's played some football. It's not like he's a junior coming out that hasn't played. He's been the heart and soul of that great Seminole defense.

—Jets head coach Bruce Coslet

Marvin is a very special player. He's in a special class. He's a very good inside blitzzer and he's a very good coverage guy and he's a very good hitter, plus, he's such a fast linebacker. He brings more speed and quickness than you're used to seeing in a LB. He accelerates on the field. He covers a tremendous amount of territory chasing the football and he's a real good hitter when he gets there. He has everything you're looking for. It's real obvious what kind of talent he has, and the way the draft came down, we were fortunate to get him and we're real happy about it.

—Jets defensive coordinator Pete Carroll

Marvin never turns off his motor. That's what you look for in an athlete but don't get very often. Most will rest somewhere along the way, but he's full speed all the time. He stacks up with any I've ever seen, not only at Florida State but those we've played against. Does he have speed? Yes. Agility? Yes. Can he hit? Yes. He's got the whole package.

—Florida State head coach Bobby Bowden

There's no question Marvin is unique. In my honest opinion, he is the best linebacker in college football.

—Florida State linebackers coach Wally Burnham

Jones gets to the ball in a hurry—and he's not in a good mood when he gets there. —Miami Hurricanes head coach Dennis Erickson

He has been highly productive as a receiver and as a running back. We look at him as a real candidate for a 3rd down-type back because of his hands and running ability.

—Jets GM Dick Steinberg

He likes to practice with a smile on his face. If you have a smile on your face in a really violent sport, it's because you like it or you're crazy. I think Adrian's a little of both.

— West Virginia QB and receivers coach Dan Simrell

He's really a special football player. We've had some great tailbacks since I've been here—A.B. Brown, Undra Johnson and Robert Alexander—but I'd say this kid is the best. He's faster than any of the others, and he catches the ball as well as any.

Most great running backs don't work like Adrian does. This kid never lets up. And I think that's what's going to separate him from the pack. He has the ability and desire to get better all the time.

— West Virginia head coach Don Nehlen

He's a very tough guy who can run and get up the field, and chase and rush the passer. He's a guy who knows how to prepare and works out great. One of his real strong points is his pass rushing ability. The term "you know exactly what you're getting" is very appropriate for him. — Jets GM Dick Steinberg

He's a very quick defensive lineman. We're going to start out playing him at DE and he can also go inside. He's a very good pass rusher. He's very, very quick off the football. That was one of the things you noticed immediately on Georgia Tech's defense, he was the 1st man across the line of scrimmage on virtually every snap. — Jets head coach Bruce Coslet

He's a relentless pass rusher coming off the perimeter. He makes so many big plays behind the line of scrimmage. — Georgia Tech head coach Bill Lewis

Coleman could play at the NFL level. He can reach the QB. I've been very impressed with his ability to rush the passer. He's got extremely good strength, which combined with his size and quickness off the ball, allows him to put heat on the QB. No one in our league was crazy enough to block him with just one man. — Georgia Tech Defensive Line coach Cary Godette

I would have liked being named Tonto. It would have brought me some more attention. — Coleman Rudolph on being named after long-time Georgia Tech coach Tonto Coleman

1992 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

Sept. 6, at Atlanta 20, Jets 17 (65,585) - Indoors. The Jets fell behind 17-0 in the 1st quarter and fought back to within striking distance, but came up short as they dropped the opening regular season game in the Georgia Dome. Browning Nagle, the 2nd-year QB starting his 1st NFL game, brought the Jets back with an impressive performance, passing for 366 yards and 2 TD, but a fumble on the Falcons' 2-yard line and missed 41 and 42-yard FG kept the Jets from ever taking the lead. Atlanta opened the scoring with a 25-yard FG and then built it to 10-0 17 seconds later when it recovered a muffed snap by the Jets. Another TD made it 17-0. The teams then traded FG before Nagle drove the Jets 80 and 47 yards and completed TD passes of 15 and 37 yards to Al Toon and Chris Burkett respectively.

The two teams battled to a 10-10 tie through 3 quarters and then Barry Foster romped 54 yards for the go-ahead TD, giving the Steelers a 17-10 lead 1 minute into the 4th quarter. Pittsburgh added a 35-yard FG 5 minutes later and then sealed the Jets' fate with a 65-yard INT return for a TD by Larry Griffin. The two defenses forced 12 turnovers, 5 by the Jets that led to 2 scores. The first, a forced fumble, led to a 3-0 lead on Jason Staurovsky's 32-yard FG, and after a 23-yard TD run by Foster gave the Steelers the lead, Jets CB Mike Brim returned a Neil O'Donnell INT 77 yards for a TD, giving the Jets a 10-7 2nd quarter lead. Gary Anderson added a 28-yard FG at the end of the 2nd quarter to knot the score. The Jets lost RDE Jeff Lageman for the season in the 1st quarter with a sprained knee, and saw QB Browning Nagle leave the game with a bruised index finger on his passing hand.

Sept. 27, at Los Angeles 18, Jets 10 (42,005) - Sunny, warm. The Jets fell to 0-4 as they lost to the Rams in LA. They built a 10-0 lead, but saw it slip away as the Rams hunt and pecked their way to victory. After a 19-yard FG and a 1-yard TD run by Baxter gave the Jets a 10-0 lead, the Rams produced a 49-yard FG and then got a safety as QB Browning Nagle was tackled in the end zone. LA opened the 2nd half with their only TD of the game, a 31-yard pass from Jim Everett to Flipper Anderson to gain a 12-10 lead. The Rams then converted two Jet turnovers into FG of 22 and 20 yards for the final margin. The Jets produced 330 total yards on offense, 149 rushing, but the Rams were more opportunistic, turning 4 Jet turnovers into 8 points. Al Toon made the 500th catch of his career and the Jets lost Dennis Byrd for six weeks due to a separated shoulder.

Oct. 26, Buffalo 24, at Jets 20 (68,181) - Overcast, cool. For the 2nd-straight year the Jets suffered a heart-breaking loss on Monday night TV. Jim Kelly connected with Thurman Thomas on a 12-yard TD pass with 51 seconds remaining to rub out a Jets go-ahead TD 61 seconds earlier. With only 3:38 remaining, the Jets fought back from a 17-13 deficit as Ken O'Brien, replacing the injured Browning Nagle, drove the club 77 yards in 5 plays giving NY a 20-17 lead on Brad Baxter's 1-yard run with 1:50 left. Kelly then moved the Bills 75 yards in 7 plays for the winning score. The Jets dominated the clock, controlling the ball for 38:24, but the Bills made the most of their time with the ball, the key play coming on a 16-yard Kelly to James Lofton pass in the 2nd quarter that was set up by a Nagle INT and gave the Bills a 14-6 lead heading into the locker room.

Nov. 1, at Jets 26, Miami 14 (69,313) - Cloudy, cool. The Jets climbed off the deck after a heart-breaking loss in week 8 to defeat the Dolphins at the Meadowlands. It was a combination of the Jets' defense and their offensive firepower that made the difference. QB Ken O'Brien, starting for the injured Browning Nagle, earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, throwing for 3 TD and the defense hurried Miami QB Dan Marino all day limiting Miami to only 11 first downs and 296 total yards. The Jets jumped to a 23-0 halftime lead on O'Brien's 3 TD passes to Johnny Mitchell (37 yards), Al Toon (4 yards) and Rob Moore (20 yards) and Marvin Washington's sack and safety of Marino. The Dolphins, the team with the NFL's best record, fought back to within 23-14 in the 2nd half on 2 Marino TD passes to Keith Jackson (5 yards) and Mark Duper (39 yards), but the Jets answered with a 13-play, 52-yard drive that consumed 8:09 of the clock and culminated in a Cary Blanchard 47-yard FG to ice the game.

Nov. 8, at Denver 27, Jets 16 (74,678) - Sunny, cold. "The game boiled down to two big mistakes. We played a good game, but not good enough," said Jet head coach Bruce Coslet referring to a blown coverage on John Elway's 80-yard TD pass and an INT which bounced off the hands of RB Freeman McNeil and was returned for a TD. The two teams traded early FG, but Denver went ahead 10-3 on Elway's TD pass, the longest of his career. NY drew to within 10-6, but then Wymon Henderson intercepted the pass that deflected off McNeil and returned it for a TD at the end of the half for a 17-6 lead. Denver added a FG and NY mounted a comeback, closing to 20-16 on a 25-yard Browning Nagle to Rob Moore TD and a 36-yard Cary Blanchard FG. The Jets appeared ready to take the lead as they got their 4th takeaway, and the 3rd by SS Brian Washington, but McNeil fumbled at midfield, leading to an insurance TD for the Broncos. Brad Baxter led the Jets rushing attack, which totaled 159 yards, with 12-96.

Nov. 29, Kansas City 23, at Jets 7 (57,375) - Cloudy, cold. The Jets lost more than a ball game when starting DE Dennis Byrd suffered a severe neck injury, causing partial paralysis, in their loss to the Kansas City Chiefs at the Meadowlands. NY held tough against the AFC West leading Chiefs, allowing only 2 1st half FG. Unfortunately, they were unable to put any points on the board themselves and the Chiefs came alive with a 75-yard TD drive that featured a 55-yard Dave Krieg to Willie Davis pass. On their next series they added another TD on a 4-yard TD pass from Krieg to Tim Barnett, giving the Chiefs a 20-0 lead. After having two drives stalled in KC territory the Jets finally hit paydirt on a 10-yard TD pass from Browning Nagle to Terance Mathis that culminated a 51-yard, 8 play drive. KC added a 38-yard FG to cap off the scoring. Nagle, who relieved injured starter Ken O'Brien, was 13-27-146-1 TD. In addition to Byrd's severe injury and O'Brien's injury, the Jets lost RB Blair Thomas on the game's 1st play with a sprained knee and later lost RT Irv Eatman with a sprained ankle.

Dec. 6, Jets 24, at Buffalo 17 (75,876) - Cloudy, cold. The Jets, with the spirit of Dennis Byrd squarely with them, upset the AFC East leading Bills at Rich Stadium in Buffalo. The victory ended a string of 10-straight wins by the Bills in the series. With the score tied 17-17 SS Brian Washington intercepted QB Jim Kelly at the B23 and weaved his way into the end zone for the go-ahead TD with just 1:41 remaining. DT Bill Pickel snuffed out one Bills rally with a sack, FF and FR all on one play and then Washington sealed the game when he stole Kelly's last attempt at the J29 with 11 seconds left. Buffalo took a 10-3 halftime lead, but the Jets caught up on the 1st drive of the 3rd quarter on a 1-yard Brad Baxter TD run. Mark Gunn's forced fumble and Lonnie Young's recovery led to an 8-play, 40-yard drive and a 9-yard TD run by Baxter. Buffalo came back to knot the score at 17-17 early in the 4th quarter, and that's the way it stayed until Washington's big play. Browning Nagle played perhaps his best game of the season with 14-22-176 passing and Baxter led the ground game with 98 yards.

Dec. 13, Indianapolis 10, at Jets 6 (33,684) - Cloudy, cold. The Jets defense bailed the offense and special teams out for better than 57 minutes, but it's shoulders finally couldn't carry the load any longer and the Colts scored the winning TD with 2:29 to go, sending NY to it's 10th defeat of the season. Time after time, the Jets' defense came up with big play after big play. With NY clinging to a 6-3 lead, the Colts got the ball at the NY 36, 18 and 44 yard-lines, but the defense forced a punt and turned in 2 INT. The Colts finally put together a 71-yard drive that ended with a 23-yard pass from Jack Trudeau to Charles Arbuckle. The Jets turned the ball over 5 times, 3 on Browning Nagle INT and 2 fumbles. NY held the Colts to 284 yards and produced 2 INT and 5 sacks, but could manage only 246 yards on offense to go with the 5 turnovers.

Dec. 20, at Miami 19, Jets 17 (68,275) - Partly cloudy, warm. The Dolphin's Pete Stoyanovich atoned for a missed PAT with 2:30 remaining and kicked a 37-yard FG with 7 seconds left to defeat the Jets on national TV. NY trailed 7-0 until midway in the 3rd quarter when Browning Nagle teamed with Rob Moore on a 48-yard TD pass and then took a 14-7 lead when LB Bobby Houston picked off a Dan Marino pass, which was tipped by DE Marvin Washington, and returned it 20 yards for a TD. The Dolphins narrowed the gap to 14-10, but the Jets added a 35-yard FG to make it 17-10 with 4:16 left. Miami made a big comeback as Marino hit Tony Martin on a 55-yard scoring pass, but Stoyanovich missed the PAT, leaving the Jets with a 1 point lead. The Dolphins defense prevented the Jets from getting a first down and running out the clock, and got the ball back at their own 45 after a 29-yard punt, setting up the winning FG.

Dec. 26, New Orleans 20, at Jets 0 (45,614) - Sunny, cold. The Jets came out flying but couldn't sustain an offensive drive as the Saints ended their season with a defeat at the Meadowlands. Browning Nagle led the Jets 53 yards on their opening drive before giving the ball up on downs, and Bill Pickel forced a fumble on the Saints first possession that was recovered by Mo Lewis. But then Saint's LB Sam Mills stripped Nagle of the ball at the NO 16 and returned it 76 yards for a TD and a 7-0 Saints lead that they would never relinquish. Kicker Morten Andersen added a 27-yard FG at the end of the half, and kicked a 36-yarder in the 4th quarter after RB Craig Heyward had given the Saints a 17-0 lead with a 2-yard TD run in the 3rd quarter. The Jets defense forced 4 turnovers, including 3 INT of QB Bobby Hebert, but the offense was unable to capitalize on the opportunities.

HALL OF FAMERS

WEEB EWBANK HEAD COACH (1963-73) GENERAL MANAGER (1963-74)

On July 29, 1978 Weeb Ewbank was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Ewbank ranks 11th on the all-time coaches victory list with 130. He is the only coach ever to win World Championships in both the NFL (Baltimore 1958-59) and AFL (New York 1968).

Ewbank joined the Jets in 1963 as head coach and GM after serving as head coach of the Colts from 1954-1962. The 1968 season was a magical one for the players, coaches and the fans. The Jets went 11-3 and burst into the playoffs on the way to Super Bowl III versus Ewbank's former team—the Baltimore Colts. The New Yorkers shocked the world by defeating the Colts 16-7 (the 1st victory for the AFL in the Super Bowl).

Ewbank coached the Jets through 1973 before retiring. He has worked with some of the game's greatest legends including Joe Namath, Don Maynard, Paul Brown, Otto Graham, Johnny Unitas and Raymond Berry.

JOE NAMATH QUARTERBACK (1965-76)

Joe Namath, "superstar", is an apt description for this Jets quarterback. He was a player who transcended the playing field to become a household name and put a whole league on the map, the AFL. Namath enjoyed a sparkling career and led the Jets to what experts call one of the greatest upsets in sport's history when he guided the team to a 16-7 win over the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III on Jan. 12, 1969.

Despite having five knee operations, Namath was one of the game's great quarterbacks and one of its most prolific passers. He was the first player to throw for more than 4,000 yards doing it in a 14-game season (1967). He still holds most of the Jets' passing records and for his pro career completed 1,886 of 3,762 passes for 27,663 yards and 173 TD.

Namath's 1965 signing gave the Jets and the AFL the credibility they needed and started the building to the Super Bowl championship. His legendary Alabama coach Bear Bryant said, "Joe Namath is the greatest athlete I have ever coached."

Namath was elected to the Hall of Fame on January 29, 1985.

DON MAYNARD WIDE RECEIVER (1960-72)

At the time of his retirement, Don Maynard was the all-time leading receiver in NFL history. Maynard caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7) for 88 TD. His yardage still ranks 4th all-time and his number of catches is 7th.

Maynard was a four-time AFL All-Star and is a member of the All-Time AFL team chosen by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He went over the 100-yard receiving mark in 50 games (still an NFL record). The El Paso, TX native joined the AFL in 1960 and was the first Titan to sign a contract.

His most memorable game was the 1968 AFL Championship in which he caught six passes for 118 yards and two TD (including the game-winner) to help put the Jets into the Super Bowl.

The Texas Western (now known as the Univ. of Texas at El Paso) alumnus was enshrined into the Hall of Fame on Aug. 8, 1987.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1968 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP DEC. 29, 1968—SHEA STADIUM NEW YORK 27, OAKLAND 23

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland. A title game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack. Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Daryle Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the only coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969—MIAMI ORANGE BOWL NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17 1/2 point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

1969 AFL PLAYOFF
Dec. 20, 1969—SHEA STADIUM
KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jets 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only TD of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incomplection and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

1981 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF
DEC. 27, 1981—SHEA STADIUM
BUFFALO 31, NEW YORK 27

In one of the most exciting playoff games ever played, the Buffalo Bills hung on to defeat the Jets, 31-27 as Bill Simpson made an interception on the two-yard line with time running out.

The Bills scored on the opening kickoff when they recovered a Bruce Harper fumble and quickly built that to a 24-0 second quarter lead. The Jets rallied in the third quarter to make it 24-13. The game appeared over as Joe Cribbs busted a 50-yard TD to give Buffalo a 31-13 lead with 10:16 left.

The Jets refused to die, however, and with Richard Todd at the controls, New York scored 2 quick TD and were now down 31-27 with 3:44 to 90. A swarming defense forced the Bills to go three and out and with 2:36 left and the goal line 80-yards away, Todd started the Jets on their march. They drove to the Bills 11-yard line with 14 seconds on the clock, but Simpson made his game-saving interception and the Jets' season ended.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF

JAN. 9, 1983—CINCINNATI RIVERFRONT STADIUM
NEW YORK 44, CINCINNATI 17

The Jets mixed up solid and hard hitting football with a measure of razzle dazzle on offense and gimmicks on defense to beat the Bengals at Cincinnati in round one of the NFL Super Bowl Tournament. The game was highlighted by Freeman McNeil's 202 yards rushing, the 3rd highest in playoff history, a TD pass from McNeil and a 98-yard INT for a TD by Darrol Ray to secure the win. The Bengals jumped to leads of 14-3 and 14-10 and were threatening to score again, when the Jets' defense might have made the play of the day. Nickel back Johnny Lynn made an interception at the J1 and with McNeil leading the way behind an awesome performance by the offensive line, the Jets surged to a 17-14 lead which they never surrendered. McNeil was the "cannon" being shot by Richard Todd 21 times for 202 yards and one TD.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF

JAN. 15, 1983—LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM
NEW YORK 17, L.A. RAIDERS 14

The Jets sprung upset number two in the 2nd round of the Super Bowl Tournament, beating the Raiders to enter the AFC championship game. Richard Todd's 45-yard pass to Wesley Walker set up the winning one-yard TD run by Scott Dierking, but it took a pair of Lance Mehl interceptions in the last 3 minutes to wrap it up for the Jets. New York jumped to a 10-0 lead on a 20-yard TD pass from Todd to Walker and a Pat Leahy FG, but the Raiders came storming back in the 2nd half to take a 14-10 lead. The Jets came back to take the lead at the 3:45 mark following the Todd to Walker bomb, but the Raiders still had plenty of time. It looked as if the Jets had put the Raiders away when Mehl intercepted Plunkett at the LA27 with only 2:49 left, but the Raiders got one more chance when they recovered a Freeman McNeil fumble at their own 33 with 2:26 to go. Then Mehl made his clinching interception and this time the Jets ran out the clock.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP JAN. 23, 1983—MIAMI ORANGE BOWL MIAMI 14, NEW YORK 0

On an extremely muddy field at Miami's Orange Bowl, the Jets and Dolphins waged a defensive battle which ended with Miami on top 14-0 to earn a trip to the Super Bowl. A.J. Duhe was the hero of the game, which saw a total of 12 turnovers, with three interceptions, returning the final one 35-yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Woody Bennett ran seven yards for the first Miami touchdown on the Dolphins' first possession of the third quarter, capping a 48-yard, seven-play drive following Duhe's second interception. The poor field conditions severely hurt the Jets' rushing attack as Freeman McNeil, who had rushed for 303 yards in the previous two playoff wins, was limited to only 46 yards on 17 carries due to the footing. It was the first time in NFL playoff history that two teams were deadlocked at 0-0 at halftime. The Jets passing game was also hindered as Richard Todd was intercepted a record-tying five times by Miami. The New York defense held Miami to only 198 net yards, intercepted David Woodley three times and forced three fumbles.

1985 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF DEC. 28, 1985—GIANTS STADIUM NEW ENGLAND 26, NEW YORK 14

New England came out on top 26-14 in a game that saw the Jets self-destruct. The Jets committed 4 costly turnovers which led to 17 Patriots points. New England, which went on to win the AFC championship, played an almost flawless game with no turnovers and only 1 penalty. The Jets were ahead 7-6, and driving late in the 2nd quarter when Ken O'Brien was intercepted on the 7-yard line. New England came back with a TD pass from Tony Eason to Stanley Morgan on a blitz 6 plays later. O'Brien suffered a concussion on the final play of the half on an Andre Tippett sack and would only play the first series of the 2nd half. Before Pat Ryan could relieve him though, New England added a FG and then scored a TD when the ensuing kickoff was fumbled by Johnny Hector and returned 15-yards by Johnny Rembert. With the Jets trailing 23-7, Ryan came in and directed a TD drive.

1986 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Dec. 28, 1986—GIANTS STADIUM

NEW YORK 35, KANSAS CITY 15

Joe Walton started Pat Ryan to give the team an emotional lift and it got just that from Ryan plus a key running play and a 3-TD passing performance. The club also received Freeman McNeil's 135-yard rushing performance to spark the Jets' first home playoff win since 1968. Trailing 6-0, Ryan ran a QB draw for 24 yards from the KC33 on a 4th & 6 play to set up the Jets' go ahead TD. On the 1st down of the ensuing series, the Jets defense forced a KC fumble and Ryan concluded a 12-play, 47-yard drive with a 1-yard pass to McNeil. Just prior to the half, Ryan hit Al Toon with a TD pass for a 21-6 halftime edge. The Jets nailed the victory on the 1st play of the 2nd half when Kevin McArthur swiped a Todd Blackledge pass and dashed 21 yards for a 28-6 margin. The Jets' defense allowed a season low 241 yards total offense and had 2 sacks, 2 INT and 1 FR.

1986 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Jan. 3, 1987—CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 23, NEW YORK 20 (2 OTs)

In the 3rd longest game in NFL history (77:02), Cleveland staged an incredible comeback to send the game into OT before Mark Moseley's 27-yard FG advanced the Browns to the AFC Championship game. With Pat Ryan at QB, the Jets jumped on top 7-0 following a flea-flicker 42-yard TD pass from Ryan to Wesley Walker. Ryan was forced to leave the game in the 2nd quarter with a groin injury and was replaced by Ken O'Brien. Meanwhile, the Jets defense was outstanding holding the Browns to just 10 points and 302 total yards until late in the 4th quarter. Immediately after a Jerry Holmes interception, the Jets took a 20-10 lead on Freeman McNeil's 25-yard TD with 4:14 remaining in regulation. Kosar led the Browns 68 yards to set up Kevin Mack's one-yard run to make the score 20-17 with 1:57 left. Cleveland's defense forced the Jets to punt with :51 left before Kosar's 37-yard pass to Webster Slaughter to the 5-yard line set up the tying 22-yard FG. The Jets got a 2nd life when Moseley missed a 23-yard FG 6:06 into OT, but he redeemed himself by kicking the winning 27-yard FG on a first-and-goal play from the J9.

1991 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Dec. 29, 1991 - Houston Astrodome
HOUSTON 17, NEW YORK 10

The Jets returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1986 and came close to registering an upset win at Houston. Trailing 17-10 with only :20 left at the H47, the Jets were unsuccessful in their attempts to tie the game on 2 Hail Mary passes, the last of which was intercepted to end the game. The game started with Houston taking the opening drive 80 yards in 16 plays for a 7-0 lead. After Erik McMillan's INT halted the Oilers' next drive, the Jets tied the game on Al Toon's 1st TD of the season, a 10-yarder from Ken O'Brien. Warren Moon tossed his 2nd TD pass of the game to Earnest Givens to give the Oilers a 14-10 halftime lead. Three key plays would doom the Jets in the second half. After taking the opening drive of the third quarter down to the H7 in 12 plays, O'Brien's pass intended for Mark Boyer was picked off by Bubba McDowell at the H3. Houston then drove 62 yards in 14 plays for a 53-yard FG to go ahead 17-10. On the Jets' next drive attempting to tie the game from the H3, Brad Baxter was stopped on 3rd and 1 for no gain, and then Freeman McNeil was halted on 4th and 1. The Jets got another shot when Lonnie Young's hit forced Moon to fumble at the H34 with 4:59 left, but the Oilers' defense stopped the Jets on 4 downs. The Jets' defense played extremely well holding the high-powered Houston offense to just 17 points while registering 4 sacks (2 by Mo Lewis), 2 FF and 1 INT. Toon tied for the 2nd most catches by a Jets' WR in a playoff game with 8-96-1 TD.
